If you’re looking for an advanced degree that can lead to long-term gains, a Master of Science in Accounting from La Roche College offers the assets you need to succeed.

Professionals who enjoy the greatest job security are those with additional certification and licensure. At La Roche, you’ll gain the leverage you need to become certified and the professional competencies you need to enhance your marketability.

At La Roche, you’ll acquire specialized knowledge while preparing for the CPA exam and licensure. Upon graduation, you’ll meet the 150 credit hours that Pennsylvania now requires for CPA certification – making you more attractive to employers in today’s competitive workforce.

THE CURRICULUM
- Ethics & Professional Responsibilities in Accounting
- Modern Accounting Information Systems
- The Business of Reading and Writing
- Fraud Examination
- Advanced Forensic Accounting
- Wealth Management
- Accounting for Not-for-Profit Entities
- Contemporary Issues in Taxation
- International Accounting
- Applied Research
WHY LA ROCHE?

- 30-credit program offering advanced level of study in various, specific topics in accounting.
- Real-world opportunities such as the Applied Research in Accounting course where you apply classroom knowledge to an outside organization.
- Personalized attention in an intimate setting with a 12:1 student-to-faculty ratio.
- Industry-connected faculty who hold terminal degrees and all necessary credentials for their professions.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

1. A baccalaureate degree in accounting or finance from an accredited college or university.
2. Overall undergraduate grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or better on a 4.0 scale.*
3. Prerequisite undergraduate courses:
   - Intermediate Accounting
   - Taxation
   - Auditing
4. Official transcripts from all post-secondary institutions attended.

*If you have less than a 3.0 but show extreme promise through other achievements, the program chair may grant you provisional admission.

Apply online at laroche.edu
MISSION
La Roche College, a Catholic institution of higher learning, founded and sponsored by the Congregation of the Sisters of Divine Providence, fosters global citizenship and creates a community of scholars from the region, the nation and around the world. The College integrates liberal arts and professional education in creative ways, empowering all members of our community to become lifelong learners, achieve success in their chosen careers and promote justice and peace in a constantly changing global society.