

---

Steven Pohl '81

---

Trustee, La Roche College

Vice President, Financial Planning and Analysis, Novelis, Inc.

Steven Pohl has lived and worked in Mexico, France and Switzerland and has traveled to more than 50 countries to achieve professional success.

Pohl now works as vice president of financial planning and analysis at Novelis, Inc., an $11 billion manufacturer of rolled aluminum products. His responsibilities include long-range planning, management reporting and analysis of the company's performance.

His community service has impacted the lives of many children. In the past, Pohl served as a Sunday school teacher and a youth fellowship leader. He is currently the community service project coordinator for Cub Scout Pack 1050 of Sandy Springs, Ga. Pohl also serves as a trustee at La Roche.

"My special memory of La Roche is my work study job in the College's business office," Pohl said. "I learned as much there, if not more, as I did in the classroom."

