

La Roche College
CERTIFICATE IN FORENSIC PSYCHOLOGY
Department: Psychology

Student Name _____
I.D. Number _____

First-Year Student
 Change of Major
 Transfer
 Readmit

PURPOSE: The Department of Psychology, in coordination with the Department of Law, Justice and Security, offers a certificate in Forensic Psychology. The certificate will be awarded to students who successfully complete the course requirements and demonstrate a basic understanding and knowledge of selected subject matter in Psychology and Criminal Justice.

GENERAL RESTRICTIONS: Certificate must be completed within the student's graduation timeline.

AVAILABILITY: Required coursework may entail day and evening classes. Completion of the requirements may take up to three years due to course rotations and prerequisites.

REQUIRED COURSES:

A total of 25 credits in the following courses are required for completion of the certificate.

		Credits	Comments:
Psychology Courses:
<input type="checkbox"/>	PSYC1021	Introduction to Psychology	3
<input type="checkbox"/>	PSYC3011	Research in Psychology	3
<input type="checkbox"/>	PSYC3023	Abnormal Psychology	3
<input type="checkbox"/>	PSYC2065	Forensic Psychology	3
<input type="checkbox"/>	PSYC3070	Critical Skills for Psychology	1

Criminal Justice Courses:

<input type="checkbox"/>	CRIM1001	Introduction to Criminal Justice	3
<input type="checkbox"/>	CRIM2012	Analysis of Criminal Justice Data	3	Prerequisite: CRIM2012 and PSYC3070
<input type="checkbox"/>	CRIM3030	Theories of Criminal Deviance	3

Cross-listed Courses:

<input type="checkbox"/>	PSYC/CRIM3063	Criminal Behavior: Law & Psychology	3
--------------------------	---------------	-------------------------------------	---	--

Total Credits Earned _____

Credits Required 25

Credits Remaining _____

Registrar's Signature _____

Date _____