The ESL/Pathway program is special because teachers are dedicated and supportive. They give you personal attention in small classes to help you succeed. The curriculum is designed to quickly improve your academic language skills so you can confidently move into university degree programs. Outside of class, you will be part of a lively and welcoming community that offers activities and connects you with peers, making your transition to campus life easy and enjoyable.

The ESL program has been an excellent preparation for my college studies. I improved my academic English skills and learned how to succeed in an American university environment. I also met people from many different countries, which helped me grow both personally and culturally. I truly recommend this program to any student who wants to feel confident before starting undergraduate work.

Studying at La Roche University has been an amazing experience for me. The professors are very supportive, always helpful, and truly care about our success. There are also many events happening all the time, which makes the campus feel lively and welcoming. I've learned a lot, made great friends, and I'm grateful for all the opportunities this program and this university have given me.

The ESL program at La Roche has helped me improve my English and feel confident in my classes. The teachers are very supportive, and the tutoring sessions outside of class are a great opportunity to strengthen the areas where I need extra help. The small classes and friendly community make learning enjoyable. I highly recommend this program to anyone beginning their academic journey in the U.S.

Even though I am an international student living miles away from my home, La Roche quickly became a warm and supportive place for me. The guidance and help from our teachers, and the activities that make students feel less alone, support both my academic and personal growth. In this environment, I truly feel that I am growing and improving. I believe that the strong educational experience La Roche offers will give me a solid foundation for my future goals.
